3. Form and Display of Logo:

- The use of the ICNDT logo and insignia, other than for official ICNDT business, shall require the full approval of the ICNDT Executive Committee.
- The ICNDT logo can only be used in the forms in Figures 1, 2 and 3. If used in larger or smaller form than the dimensions shall remain the same.
- The font used and the colours of the logo shall remain the same.

4. Terms of Use:

- ICNDT Members are encouraged to use an appropriate ICNDT logo to signify their membership of ICNDT.
- Members may use the logo in connection with ICNDT's co-sponsorship of conferences and exhibitions with permission of the ICNDT Executive. Permission will be granted only to international events in English or with interpretation, open to all ICNDT member societies which do not conflict with WCNDT or regional conferences. If used in conjunction with other logos each should not be shown with more prominence than another.
- The ICNDT logo and logotype together form the ICNDT trademark, are supplied together as such and should only be used in these forms. In no circumstances should the logo and logotype be separated or interfered with in any way.
- The logo should not be used in a misleading way.
- Organisations authorised by ICNDT to use the logo will be provided with a master copy by the ICNDT Secretariat.
- A register of approved organisations shall be kept by the ICNDT Secretariat.

Notes:

- Notwithstanding the requirements contained in this document, the ICNDT reserves the right to require those using the ICNDT logo or reference to ICNDT in an unacceptable manner to desist and withdraw such documentation immediately.
- Where any doubts exist as to the correct use of an ICNDT logo, then advice should be sought from ICNDT before using such marks.
